

East Devon Way Link Route (south to north)

East Devon Way Link to Whitford

(Follow the Link Waymarkers)

Easy short walk (20 mins) 1 km - Can be very wet in winter

Start location: T-junction on the East Devon Way halfway between Colyton and Musbury (SY 260 947)

Off-road link route - East Devon Way to Whitford -

Description: - [1] Start at the T-junction on the East Devon Way - Follow the fingerpost - field can be wet, but easy to work around the bad bits - through gate at far end of field and immediately through another gate - turn left - in under the trees cross the stile - continue straight on to a gap in the hedge - Follow the path around the curve to gate - carry on down the track - it emerges near the Whitford Bridge - turn left for Whitford - or turn right and cross the river [2] Enter the layby with seat, parking and access to the riverside -

- Amenities in Whitford: bus route.

East Devon Way Link Route (north to south)

Whitford Link to East Devon Way

(Follow the Link Waymarkers)

Easy short walk (20 mins) 1 km

Start location: Whitford Bridge, Whitford - (SY 262 954)

Off-road link route - Whitford to East Devon Way.

Description: - [2] Start in the car park by the Whitford bridge (Bus route passes through here) - cross the bridge - turn left after the bridge down a track - follow the link waymarker down the track into field - follow curve around the edge of field - go through the gap in the hedge - carry on straight across the field - cross the stile in the dip under the trees - proceed to the small gate - through the gate - immediately through the next small gate turn left and cross field to the stile - over stile to [2] The T-junction with the East Devon Way -

From here you can turn left to Musbury, Musbury Castle and on to Lyme Regis - Or turn right and follow the East Devon Way to Colyton -

